

1. General

- 1.1 All offers and offers from and agreements with the Contractor Handelskade Shipsales BV (hereinafter referred to as "Contractor" or "Handelskade") for the performance of work by the Contractor are subject to these conditions and a counterparty to which the Contractor has declared these conditions applicable. Work is also understood to mean the delivery of goods and / or services, except and to the extent that the contrary is apparent below.
- 1.2 The Client is understood to mean Handelskade 'contractual counterparty including its staff, proxies / agents, representatives and assistants, including those who request or receive a quotation from Handelskade. Client is also understood to mean - if this is not the contractual counterparty - the owner, manager and / or operator of the Object (including the ship or item to which the Work relates or for which the Work is being performed - as well as the person who as a party joins any agreement to which Handelskade is a party, such as from the moment of accession.
- 1.3 The Client is deemed to have renounced his own or other conditions and deviating or additional stipulations by joining the agreement, notwithstanding any reference thereto or specific notification thereof. The contractor explicitly rejects these terms and conditions.
- 1.4 The Client is deemed to also accept the applicability of these terms and conditions with regard to subsequent assignments to and agreements with the Contractor.
- 1.5 If there is uncertainty about the interpretation of one or more provisions of these general terms and conditions, the explanation must take place "in the spirit" of these provisions.
- 1.6 If a situation occurs between parties that is not regulated in these terms and conditions, then this situation must be assessed in the spirit of these terms and conditions.
- 1.7 If the Contractor does not always demand strict compliance with these conditions, this does not mean that the provisions thereof do not apply, or that the Contractor would lose the right to demand strict compliance with the provisions of these conditions in other cases. .
- 1.8 Handelskade is entitled to charge the Client for all costs associated with issuing an offer, regardless of whether this leads to an agreement.

2. Information and data

- 2.1. The Client shall provide the Contractor free of charge, in a timely and unsolicited manner with all information and data required for the performance of the Contracts by the Contractor. The consequences of errors and changes therein and in designs or specifications on the part of the Client are at the risk of the Client.
- 2.2. Handelskade may assume the correctness of the information / data required by the Client for the Work. All information, statements and advice reinforced by Handelskade in the context of the Work are of a general and non-binding nature. Client cannot derive any rights from this.
- 2.3. Client is responsible for designs, drawings, calculations etc. supplied and / or worked out by him / on behalf of him, and instructions given to Handelskade. As soon as the Client has approved designs, drawings, calculations etc. originating from Handelskade, he bears the responsibility and the risk for this.
- 2.4. The client must indemnify Handelskade against all third-party claims with regard to damage that is at its risk under this article, including damage as a result of infringements of intellectual and industrial property rights.
- 2.5. If the Client wants Handelskade to take over the responsibility of designs, drawings, calculations etc. produced / provided by / on its behalf, it must timely request this in writing. Handelskade may reject this request without reason. If Handelskade is prepared to consider the request, the Client cannot derive any claims from it and it must allow Handelskade sufficient time to assess the request or have it requested and must provide all requested information free of charge and on time. All costs involved (the treatment / assessment of) in the request, regardless of acceptance by Handelskade, are for the account of the Client.

3. Offers, orders and agreements

- 3.1. All offers and quotations from the Contractor are without obligation, unless a period for acceptance is stated in the quotation. A quotation or offer expires if the product to which the quotation or offer relates is no longer available in the meantime.
- 3.2. Orders and acceptations by the Client count as an irrevocable offer.

- 3.3. The contractor is only bound if and as he has accepted the assignment in writing or has started to implement it. Verbal promises or agreements by or with its staff do not bind the Contractor until and to the extent that it has confirmed them in writing (in letter or e-mail).
- 3.4. The Contractor cannot be held to its quotations or offers if the Client can reasonably understand that the quotations or offers, or a part thereof, contain an obvious mistake or error.
- 3.5. A compound quotation does not oblige Contractor to perform part of the assignment against a corresponding part of the stated price. Offers or quotations do not automatically apply to future orders.

4. Prices

- 4.1. Quoted or agreed prices are exclusive of taxes, levies or surcharges from the government, including VAT. They only apply to the execution of the work in normal working time on or off site.
- 4.2. Prices quoted or agreed are exclusive of insurance premiums, fines, import duties, excise duties, etc., and are based on the rates, fees, wages, social security charges, etc., that apply on the date of the offer or the conclusion of the agreement or the time of execution. thereof.
- 4.3. If the costs of implementation are increased after the conclusion of the agreement, the Contractor is entitled to charge the Client a price increase if and to the extent that this is reasonable.
- 4.4. Work that is not included in the original agreement will be charged to the Client against the standard rates of the Yard existing at the time of execution.
- 4.5. For work outside of normal working hours, on weekends and on generally recognized public holidays, Handelskade may charge a surcharge of 100% above the normal or agreed rates.
- 4.6. Work that has been included in the agreement only by way of an estimate (not yet suitable for price calculation) will be charged to the Client at the time of execution, respectively. calculation of applicable rates from Handelskade.
- 4.7. The costs related to the handling and / or collection, and / or sampling, and / or removal, storage, transport and destruction of materials, waste, residues and the like may be charged by the Contractor in excess of the price.

5. Implementation and deviations

- 5.1. The contractor has the right to engage third parties for the execution of the work.
- 5.2. In addition to the usual and agreed tolerances in size, performance or otherwise, those deviations are also permitted that are necessary to achieve the desired results or that are the result of a changed working method.
- 5.3. The Client is obliged to enable the Contractor to carry out the work without hindrance. He must make the object - which is understood in these terms and conditions to be understood to mean the ship or other item to which the work relates or for the benefit of which this work is being carried out - available to the Contractor in good time and fully ready for execution of the work.
- 5.4. The Contractor has the right to move the object and other items of the Client. This includes recoveries, launching and draining.
- 5.5. The client bears the risk with regard to (the size, type, functionality and suitability of) materials / products and parts supplied / prescribed by / on behalf of him (application, processing or relationship with suppliers prescribed by him), including the risk of not (timely delivery thereof.
- 5.6. If Handelskade selects or supplies the materials, products or parts, the Client is authorized to examine these at its expense before application / processing. After application / processing, the Client can no longer rely on defects or unsuitability thereof and bears the risk for this.
- 5.7. The Client must immediately receive all goods that Handelskade delivers within the framework of the Work, failing which Handelskade may immediately charge the resulting costs to the Client, without prejudice to its other rights towards the Client.
- 5.8. If Handelskade still has goods that it has delivered to the Client because the Client does not purchase them against the payment due for this, Handelskade is entitled to, without notice of default or judicial intervention, one month after the delivery or delivery. to sell) and to recover the amounts due to it (incl. storage costs and costs of sale) from the sales proceeds.
- 5.9. Handelskade reserves the right to change the construction site / location where the hull is built, provided that this does not reasonably affect the cost and / or quality of the product for the Client.

6. Duration of implementation

- 6.1. The work starts at the agreed time. The Contractor may suspend the commencement until the Contractor has all the items, information and data to be provided by the Client and until any agreed advance payment has been made, has been received or security has been provided for the benefit of the Contractor.
- 6.2. The contractor is only bound by explicitly agreed delivery times in writing. Exceeding this by the Contractor gives the Client the right to collect a pre-fixed compensation insofar as this has been agreed in writing. This compensation will never amount to more than 5% of the price agreed for the delayed work. Incidentally, being exceeded by the Contractor does not entitle the Client to compensation, dissolution of the agreement or non-compliance by him with any of his own obligations arising from the agreement. The Client is, however, entitled to terminate the agreement for the non-executed part if the work is still not submitted within a reasonable period of time stated in writing by the Client after the aforementioned excess is carried out. In the event of such a dissolution, there is no claim to the fixed compensation.
- 6.3. The delivery time agreed or set by the Client on the basis of the previous paragraph is extended by the time that the execution is delayed due to force majeure or late delivery by suppliers, irrespective of whether the force majeure circumstances occur before or after the execution should have been completed. It is also extended by the time that the Client with any payment or the implementation of any other obligation is later than agreed or could reasonably be expected by the Contractor regardless of whether the Client is in default.

7. Work by the client or third parties

- 7.1. Without written permission from the Contractor, the Client is not entitled to perform work on the Contractor or on or on the object or other matter on or on the Contractor, or to have such work performed other than daily routine work by the crew.
- 7.2. The Client is liable for damage caused by the object or other items of the Client, by the crew, third parties engaged by him or his staff the Contractor is harmed regardless of whether the Client can be blamed for this. The Client is obliged to indemnify the Contractor against claims from the crew, such third parties or its staff with regard to damage that is related to their presence on the Contractor regardless of whether that damage is due to the Contractor.

8. Additional work

- 8.1. Changes in and additions to the Work to be performed or performed by Handelskade (incl. Resulting changes in the agreed or estimated amount of working hours, materials, delivery times etc.) in relation to the description, budget and / or estimated items in the agreement as a result of change or addition to (the manner of execution of) the Work or as a result of the fact that information and data provided prove to be incorrect, incomplete or unusable for the Work, as well as cost-increasing circumstances that are not due to Handelskade and that occurred before or at the conclusion of the agreement could not reasonably have been foreseen, in so far as this would result in several or higher costs, considered as additional work.
- 8.2. Handelskade may charge the Client the additional costs as additional work or settle them from the moment that the amount to be charged is known. The lack of a written order for additional work leaves the claims of Handelskade on invoicing resp. settlement thereof.
- 8.3. Settlement of additional work takes place as soon as the amount thereof is known, all at once with the next payment term. If no payment period has been agreed, the Client must pay for the additional work within the period stated on the invoice, but no later than at the time that the Work is deemed to have been delivered.
- 8.4. If, upon delivery of the Work, it appears that the total of the less work exceeds that of the additional work, Handelskade is entitled to payment by the Client of an amount equal to 10% of the difference between these totals, unless the request for less work came from Handelskade.

9. Environment, safety and site rules

- 9.1 The client is obliged to ensure safe working conditions and to comply with the applicable environmental and safety regulations as well as contractor rules.
- 9.2 The Client is obliged to inform the Contractor before commencing work to establish the presence of hazardous materials such as, but not limited to, asbestos and chemical or radioactive waste and of measures taken in this regard in the last 90 days.
- 9.3 The Client must cooperate with the Contractor's investigation with regarding the safety of working conditions. In the event of doubt, the Contractor is entitled to suspend or terminate the work or to take measures or have measures taken for improvement. Costs and damage as a result of all this will be borne by the Client.

- 9.4 The client acknowledges that the removal of asbestos and other hazardous substances is subject to strict legal regulations.
- 9.5 Anyone who is on / in ships, business, sites, spaces or at the place where (part of) the Work is being performed, is there - with all that he or she has with him - entirely at his own risk and must Strictly follow regulations and instructions given by governments and / or Handelskade. Handelskade does not accept any liability in this regard for personal and / or material damage and / or loss of any kind.
- 9.6 The Client guarantees that the work or deliveries that are not part of the Work of Handelskade to be carried out by or on behalf of him are performed (in time) in such a way that the execution of the Work by Handelskade is not delayed by this. If that does happen, he must compensate Handelskade for damage as a result. This does not affect Handelskade 'other rights vis-à-vis the Client

10. Delivery and inspection

- 10.1 The work is delivered when it has been purchased and approved by the Client.
- 10.2 The work counts as delivered:
- a) if the Client does not cooperate with the acceptance and inspection at the time indicated by the Contractor for delivery or refuses approval unjustifiably or without reason;
 - b) if the object has left the Contractor or the Client otherwise demonstrates that it has taken over the actual management of the object or the processed part thereof;
 - c) if the Client does not immediately report any shortcomings upon purchase and does not confirm them in writing within 48 hours thereafter.
- 10.3 Minor and / or usual shortcomings do not prevent delivery. These deficiencies are recorded in writing by the Client and the Contractor, whereby the Contractor indicates within which period the deficiencies will be remedied.
- 10.4 The contractor may partially deliver the work if the delivery of the remaining work is (temporarily) prevented or hindered by force majeure.

11. Transfer of risk and ownership

- 11.1 The risk for the object and for other goods from or to be supplied by the Client is for the Client. The risk for goods to be delivered by the Contractor is for the Client as soon as they have been built into or processed in the Client's goods.
- 11.2 Unless otherwise agreed in writing, all items to be delivered by the Contractor remain the property of the Contractor until the moment of full satisfaction of all that which the Contractor has in connection with the underlying agreement and, insofar as the law allows, in connection with other agreements, to claim from the Client.
- 11.3 The intellectual property rights with regard to the work remain with the Contractor or third party entitled parties and never transfer to the Client.

12. Force majeure

- 12.1 The Contractor is entitled to invoke force majeure if the performance is wholly or partly, temporarily or temporarily, prevented or complicated by circumstances beyond his control, such as, but not limited to, government measures, fire, accidents, damage to the work, failure of castings or forgings, unworkable weather, the (temporary) failure to deliver goods and the provision of services by third parties, transport difficulties, business, work disability and strikes. If the aforementioned circumstances occur, the Contractor may invoke force majeure with regard to all works whose performance is prevented or complicated, regardless of whether the circumstances occur with regard to the same work. The Contractor may also invoke force majeure if the performance is delayed because the Contractor gives priority to other work when that priority is reasonably offered.
- 12.2 In addition to the provisions of art. 12 of the conditions will also apply as force majeure (inter alia) flooding, abnormally low or high water levels, ice drift, staff shortages for whatever reason, withdrawal of permits necessary for the Work and security disorders. In the event of force majeure Handelskade may invoke this, even if the force majeure occurs after the (delivery) resp. the (relevant part of the) Work should have already been done.
- 12.3 With due observance of the provisions of these terms and conditions, goods supplied by, or on behalf of, the Client are excluded from the guarantee.

- 12.4. All rights, defenses, exclusions, limitations or immunities of any kind, to which Handelskade can invoke under the agreement including the General Terms and Conditions and these Additional Terms and Conditions, will also be at the service of its staff, the services it employs. third parties and / or auxiliaries and their respective employees.
- 12.5. The Client shall pass on the applicability of the General Terms and Conditions for Handelskade, Handelskade 'staff and all third parties engaged by Handelskade in connection with the Work and auxiliary persons to all suppliers prescribed by the Client to Handelskade and all third parties engaged by him in connection with the Work / auxiliaries, and will indemnify Handelskade against claims from third parties arising from the Client's failure to comply with its obligations under this article.
- 12.6. In the event of force majeure on the part of the Contractor, his obligations will be suspended. If the Contractor invokes force majeure for a period of longer than two months, both the Contractor and the Client are, without prejudice to the provisions of Article 16, entitled to dissolve the agreement for the non-executed part by written notice to the other person without being obliged to pay compensation for damage. .

13. Warranty and complaints

- 13.1. The Client is not authorized to instruct other personnel and / or auxiliary persons engaged by Handelskade in the performance of the Work or to have other work performed. In the event of violation of this article, all harmful consequences are for the account and risk of the Client.
- 13.2. If, during the execution of the Work, it appears that the Object or the object has defects that stand in the way of a proper execution / continuation of the Work, Handelskade may discontinue (further) execution of the Work and the Object or the object against payment of make the costs incurred up to that time available to the Client.
- 13.3. The Client must enable Handelskade to perform the Work within its normal working hours and in accordance with its (site) rules and under conditions that meet the statutory safety requirements and (environmental) regulations applicable to the Work.
- 13.4. If Handelskade notwithstanding the provisions of art. 9 of the General Terms and Conditions during the Work on (hazardous) substances that do not lend themselves to normal processing or disposal as waste, it may, at the expense of the Client, take measures that may reasonably be required of it to prevent bodily injury and contamination of the environment. Handelskade will inform the Client as soon as possible of the measures taken. The client must indemnify Handelskade against claims from third parties in connection with the presence, processing and / or removal of such substances.
- 13.5. Client is responsible for (the supervision of) fire prevention during the Work, including fire watch and the provision of fire prevention and extinguishing agents. He is thereby authorized to give Handelskade, its staff and third parties engaged by it
- 13.15. All guarantee obligations expire if the Client fails to comply with any obligation under this agreement or if a defect arises as a result of or results from improper or improper use thereof, incorrect maintenance by the Client and / or third parties. Nor is the client entitled to a warranty claim if the defect has arisen due to or is the result of circumstances beyond the Contractor's control, including weather conditions.
- 13.16. Items that are supplied or prescribed by the Client are excluded from the guarantee. Any form of preservation of warranty is also excluded.
- 13.17. With regard to goods and work performed by third parties, the guarantee obligations of the Contractor are limited - in scope and duration - to the guarantee actually provided by that supplier. The contractor will be discharged with regard to his guarantee obligation by transferring his possible claim against the supplier (s).
- 13.18. If it is established that a complaint is unfounded, then the costs incurred as a result, including the research costs incurred by the Contractor as a result, will be borne in full by the Client. Warranty will be charged in accordance with the applicability of these conditions.

14. Liability and indemnity

- 14.1. The liability of the Contractor in connection with any shortcomings in the work performed by him is limited to the fulfilment of the guarantee obligations described in the previous article.
- 14.2. Contractor is never liable for damage except if and insofar as the damage suffered is caused by intent or gross negligence on the part of Contractor. Except for the intention of the Contractor, the liability of the Contractor for business, consequential or indirect damage is, however, always excluded. For the application of this provision, gross negligence and intent of Contractor means gross negligence and intent of its organs and senior officials to be identified with Contractor.

- 14.3. In all cases in which the Contractor, despite the provisions of paragraph 2, is obliged to pay compensation, it will never be higher than 10% of the price of the work performed as a result of which or in connection with which the damage was caused or an amount of EUR 1,000,000. - when that is less.
- 14.4. Any claim against the Contractor, except those explicitly acknowledged in writing by the Contractor, lapses by the mere lapse of twelve months after the claim arose.
- 14.5. Liability limiting, exclusive or determining terms and conditions that can be invoked against suppliers by Contractors or auxiliaries in connection with the delivered goods or services may also be invoked by the Contractor against the Client.
- 14.6. The Client shall indemnify the Contractor and its employees against any claim by third parties in connection with the execution of the agreement by the Contractor, insofar as those claims are more or different from those to which the Client is entitled towards the Contractor.

15. Payment and security

- 15.1. Payment must be made in accordance with the term stated on the invoice, in a manner to be specified by the Contractor in the currency in which it is invoiced, unless otherwise indicated in writing by the Contractor, but at the latest at the time when the work is deemed to have been completed, term of payment made an agreement. However, the Contractor has the right to demand full or partial payment in advance and / or prior security at any time. An agreed credit term does not affect that authority.
- 15.2. The Client must submit any objections to the invoiced goods within 30 days of the invoice date both in writing to the Contractor and to discuss them at the Contractor's office, whether or not represented by a appointed expert, in the absence of which the invoiced applies as accepted by the Client and a challenge to its indebtedness is no longer possible.
- 15.3. Client waives any right to set off the amounts owed back and forth. Warranty claims do not suspend the Client's payment obligations
- 15.4. If the Client does not pay any amount owed by him on the basis of the foregoing, he will be in default without notice of default. As soon as the Client is in default with any payment, all other claims of the Contractor against the Client become due and the default with regard to those claims also commences immediately without notice of default. From the day on which the Client is in default, he owes the Contractor a default interest of 1.5% per month or part of a month over which the default continues, unless the statutory interest is higher, in which case the statutory interest is due.
- 15.5. In the event of default, the Client is obliged to reimburse the extrajudicial collection costs. These are deemed to amount to at least 15% of the outstanding amount.
- 15.6. The Contractor is entitled to withhold the items and documents that he has or will receive from the Client for whatever reason until all that the Client owes the Contractor has been paid. In the event that a claim against the Client is not due upon delivery of the aforementioned goods and documents, the Contractor is entitled to withhold it until security has been provided for payment of the claim. The Contractor is entitled to reimbursement by the Client of the costs incurred in connection with the retained item.
- 15.7. All goods of the Client that the Contractor has in its possession, or which a third party has in its possession and to which or in connection with which activities are performed by the Contractor, serve as a pledge for all that it has to claim from the Client in connection with the underlying agreement and / or other agreements with the Client, including damage, costs and interest.
- 15.8. Objections to the amount of an invoice do not suspend the payment obligation.

16. Dissolution

- 16.1. If the Client fails to meet one or more of its obligations, or fails to do so on time or properly, is declared bankrupt, applies for a (provisional) moratorium, proceeds to liquidate its business, and when its assets are fully or partially seized , the Contractor has the right to suspend the execution of the agreement or to dissolve the agreement in whole or in part, without prior notice of default, by means of a written statement, all this at its option and always retaining any right to reimbursement of costs due to it , damage and interest.
- 16.2. In the event of bankruptcy, suspension of payment or participation in a debt rescheduling arrangement on the part of the Client and in the event of dissolution of the agreement, the default of the Client will take effect immediately and without notice of default and all claims of Handelskade against the Client will become immediately due and payable.
- 16.3. The Client is only entitled to dissolution in the cases referred to in Articles 6 and 12 of these terms and conditions and then only after payment to the Contractor of all amounts owed to the Contractor, whether or not due and payable.

- 16.4. If the agreement ends on the basis of Article 16. before the agreed work has been completed or the time during which they would be performed has expired, the Contractor is entitled to the fully agreed price for that work, less the savings directly resulting from the termination. . If the agreement ends in this way due to dissolution by the Client, the Contractor is entitled to a proportionate part of the agreed price for work already carried out.
- 16.5. If, after the agreement has been concluded, the Contractor gives good grounds to fear that the Client will fail to meet one or more of its obligations, or to do so in time or not properly, after the agreement has been concluded.
- 16.6. In addition to the provisions of art. 16 of the General Terms and Conditions, Handelskade may terminate the agreement without notice of default, and the Client must compensate Handelskade for all damage that it suffers as a result and will suffer if:
- a. the Client's company is (largely) shut down or discontinued, taken over or dissolved, if his company merges, settles outside the Netherlands, or if the Client (largely) clears his premises or location or is apparently permanently leaving;
 - b. a license or registration necessary for the Client's business is withdrawn or not extended;
 - c. Client or one or more of his partners or directors retire, die or become incapacitated for legal action or are placed under guardianship;
 - d. in the opinion of Handelskade circumstances occur at the Client that entail a plausible aggravation of its risk and / or seriously hamper the normal settlement of the agreement or work;
 - e. the Object or parts thereof made available to Handelskade, whether or not made available to Handelskade, for insurance purposes, must be considered as Total Loss, stolen or obscured;
 - f. in the event of damage or serious technical defects to the Object or parts thereof or goods intended for processing therein, repair is no longer possible, or the costs of repairing such damage or defects, in the judgment of Handelskade, the value of the Object resp. that surpass components or items in the course of trade.
- 16.7. Premature termination of the agreement by dissolution does not affect the other rights of Handelskade towards the Client.
- 16.8. The Client is obliged to immediately inform Handelskade in writing and by telephone if and as soon as third parties (threaten to) seize the Object and / or parts thereof or items intended for installation therein, stating the name and address of the (potential)) attaching person (s) and the attaching bailiff (s).
- 16.9. In the event of (imminent) seizure as referred to in the previous paragraph, the Client shall immediately inform the attaching party and the bailiff or tax inspectors and / or officials verbally and in writing that Handelskade will retain ownership as referred to in art. 11.2 of General Terms and Conditions, its rights of retention as (inter alia) referred to in art. 16.6 of the General Terms and Conditions, its liens as referred to in art. 15.7 of the General Terms and Conditions, and its sales rights as referred to in these Terms and Conditions.

17. Transfer of claim rights

- 17.1. Subject to the written permission of the Contractor, the Client does not have the right to transfer its claim rights against the Contractor from the agreement or otherwise to third parties.
- 17.2. Transition pursuant to Article 6: 251 of the Dutch Civil Code is with regard to claim rights against the Contractor excluded.

18. Connecting text

- 18.1. In the event that one or more articles of these Additional Terms and Conditions are declared void, declared invalid or inapplicable by judicial decision, the other articles of these Terms and Conditions will remain fully and fully valid and Handelskade will be entitled to (continue to) invoke them.
- 18.2. In the event of a discrepancy between the deposited text of these Additional Terms and Conditions on the one hand and the texts that are printed, translated, distributed, etc. on the other hand, only the deposited Dutch text will prevail.

19. Intellectual Property

- 19.1. The Contractor reserves the rights and powers that accrue to it under the Copyright Act and other intellectual laws and regulations. The Contractor has the right to use the knowledge gained through the performance of an agreement for other purposes as well, insofar as no strictly confidential information from the Client is disclosed to third parties.

20. Disputes and applicable law

- 20.1. All disputes that exist between parties will only be settled by the competent court in Rotterdam.
- 20.2. With due observance of art. 17.2 of the General Terms and Conditions shall apply to all quotations, agreements, Work of Handelskade, as well as to the rights, obligations and claims arising therefrom, even if they accrue to third parties or are instituted by third parties, regardless of their basis (contract or tort), to the exclusion of any other law, Dutch law applies, whereby application of the Vienna Sales Convention (CISG) is excluded as well as any other international regulation, law or treaty from which exclusion is permitted.
- 20.3. The agreement is subject to Dutch law.
